IBIZA COUNTRY HOUSE

Available for stays (6 bedrooms), visits and events up to 300 people.

Located in the much sought after Mediterranean island of Ibiza, the Country House is an old farm of 55.000 m² situated in an absolutely exceptional site, the former Natural Park of Cala d'Hort, thus being surrounded by a varied Mediterranean forest. The property slopes down the eastern side of Cap Llentrisca from a 200 m altitude and is 500 m from the shore. The sea, as well as the neighboring island of Formentera, can be contemplated from the house.

The house was built in 2000, following the traditional style of the island's country houses, by the architect Juan de los Ríos. Its exceptional Mediterranean garden, with its alberca-style swimming pool, creates a unique setting for all kinds of events.
